

“I knew Maine Law would provide me with the best access to Maine’s legal community. I also knew I didn’t want to be one of those people with huge student loans – this made the most sense financially.”

HOMETOWN:

Shapleigh
Maine

UNDERGRAD:

Dartmouth College
magna cum laude

WHY MAINE LAW:

- Small size
- Communal feeling
- Excellent faculty
- Real-world experience
- Location

BEFORE MAINE LAW:

Worked for the Massachusetts Legal Assistance Corp. which supports and funds programs that provide low-income people with legal information, advice and representation.

“The students here are very supportive. The community is small as far as law schools go, which means both that you have a chance to get to know your classmates and that students tend to cooperate and help each other rather than engage in unhealthy competition.”

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING:

Judicial Intern, Maine Supreme Court

Legal Intern for the appellate division of the U.S. Attorney’s Office and the Honorable Jon D. Levy of the Maine Supreme Judicial Court

Student attorney at the Cumberland Legal Aid Clinic

ACHIEVEMENTS:

Law Clerk to the Honorable William J. Kayatta, Jr.,
U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit

Faculty Scholastic Achievement Award:
Graduated first in the class, University of Maine School of Law.

2014 Kenneth R. Clegg Award for Excellence:
Highest combined score on the Maine Bar Examination in his first attempt at passing a bar exam.

WHY MAINE:

1. There is always something new to explore
2. Great places to eat
3. Art walks and live music
