

“When I was a student, I felt that I had access to members of the Maine Bar in a way I never felt when I was enrolled at a large law school in New York City.”

HOMETOWN:

Honeoye Falls
New York

UNDERGRAD:

B.A., Wesleyan University
History/Asian Studies

BEFORE MAINE LAW:

Worked as a paralegal at a law firm in New York City and attended night school at Fordham University School of Law.

WHY MAINE LAW:

- Location
- Price
- Ties to legal community
- Small class size

“What makes Maine Law truly unique is its sense of community: not just among students, or between students and faculty, but between students and faculty at the Law School and the broader legal community.”

ACHIEVEMENTS:

Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers
First woman in Maine to be inducted in ACTL

Named one of the top 100 lawyers in New England
Awarded by New England Super Lawyers

Listed in Best Lawyers in America
For more than ten years

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING:

Student Attorney, Cumberland Legal Aid Clinic
Law Clerk, Berman Simmons

WHY MAINE:

1. The ever changing natural beauty of the state
2. As a trial lawyer, there is still the opportunity to try cases.
3. It is a richly diverse, yet still a safe and secure place to raise children.
