

Nancy McBrady '07, cum laude

Bureau Director for the Maine DACF - Bureau of Agriculture, Food, and Rural Resources

"I knew I wanted to practice in Maine, and being the only law school in the state, it made perfect sense to attend and have a three year head start putting down roots and getting to know the legal community."

HOMETOWN:

Lewiston

Maine

UNDERGRAD:

Williams College

Political Science

WHY MAINE LAW:

- Affordability
- Class Size
- Location
- Practical Skills Training

BEFORE MAINE LAW:

Management consultant at AT Kearney in Chicago and New York for sports, retail, and automotive clients.

"Maine Law provides opportunities to gain practical skills via legal clinics and externships."

Law Clerk to Judge John Beliveau

Lewiston District Court

Associate, Environmental Law Group

Preti Flaherty, Portland, Maine

Recognized in 2014 & 2013 by New England Super Lawyers as a "Rising Star"

in the area of Environmental Law.

Executive Editor, Maine Law Review

Published article: "Regulating Aesthetics of Coastal Maine: Kroeger v. Department of Environmental Protection" (11 Ocean & Coastal L.J. 99, 2005)

Summer Associate, Preti Flaherty

Semester Intern, U.S. Attorney's Office, Appellate Division

WHY MAINE:

- 1. Maine is an outdoor playground!
- 2. The Wild Blueberry barrens Down East, of course.
- 3. The lively and thriving food, music, arts, and beverage scene in Portland.