

“Maine Law is truly a family. The other students and professors know you very, very well.”

HOMETOWN:

Miller Place
New York

UNDERGRAD/GRAD:

B.A., Brandeis University
American Studies
M.A., Syracuse University
S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications

WHY MAINE LAW:

- Location
- Cost
- Community Atmosphere
- Diverse Student Body (Age-wise)

BEFORE MAINE LAW:

Sportscaster for Fox 51 News at 10
(Portland, Maine)

“Every student is instantly part of the community. Since the classes are so small there is nowhere to hide - you better be prepared for class each day!”

ACHIEVEMENTS:

Chambers USA Top Sports Attorney
Recognized as one of the nation’s top 50 sports lawyers (2011 - present)

Recognized as a Super Lawyer
Top rated Entertainment & Sports Attorney (2012 - present)

Approved Lawyer
International Court of Arbitration for Sport, the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada, and the U.S. Olympic Committee

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING:

Judicial Extern, Hon. Kermit V. Lipez,
U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit

Managing Editor, Maine Law Review

Published article: “United States Anti-Doping Agency v. Montgomery: Paving a New Path to Conviction in Olympic Doping Cases” (59 Maine Law Review 149)

WHY MAINE:

1. Access to the outdoors
2. Cosmopolitan downtown
3. Simple living - less traffic and other logistical headaches