

"Maine Law professors are doing incredibly important work inside and outside of the Law School."

HOMETOWN:

Sanford
Maine

UNDERGRAD:

Bowdoin College
Government/Anthropology

WHY MAINE LAW:

- Great value
- Small class size
- Sense of community
- Faculty

MAINE
UNIVERSITY OF MAINE SCHOOL OF LAW
LAW

BEFORE MAINE LAW:

Owned and operated a small café in Augusta, Maine with my husband and two silent partners.

"Maine Law has a close knit community that you can turn to for support and advice."

ACHIEVEMENTS:

Law Clerk

To Chief Justice Wathen & Justice Levy of the Maine Supreme Judicial Court.

Executive Director at Maine Equal Justice Partners

A civil legal aid organization dedicated to finding solutions to poverty and improving the lives of people with low income in Maine.

2015 Maine ACLU Scolnik Award

Presented for a commitment to protecting civil liberties.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING:

Managing Editor, Maine Law Review

Summer Associate, Johnson & Webbert

Legal Writing Teaching Assistant

WHY MAINE:

1. Biking & hiking
2. The people
3. The small town feeling with the added benefit of good restaurants