

Shelbe Moore '16, magna cum laude

Privacy Compliance Coordinator, Dartmouth-Hitchcock (Lebanon, NH)

"When you graduate from Maine Law, you step out the door with an incredible network of people, both at the Law School and in the broader community, who are ready to go out of their way to help you develop a unique career path designed to fit your passion."

HOMETOWN: Patten

Maine

UNDERGRAD

B.S., Business Management Minor in Legal Studies University of Maine, Honors College

WHY MAINE LAW:

- Location
- Welcoming Community
- Affordability
- Opportunities for Practical Experience

MAINE LAW

BEFORE MAINE LAW:

Graduated from the Honors College on an accelerated three-year track and drafted financial disclosure legislation as part of my thesis.

"I cannot say enough positive things about Maine Law's partnership with the IAPP. Establishing a career after law school requires building a network and setting yourself apart. Maine Law's partnership with the IAPP can provide you with both."

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING:

Extern, City of Bangor, City Solicitor's Office

Program Intern, Maine NEW Leadership, University of Maine Scholarship Attendee, IAPP Global Privacy Summit

WHY MAINE:

- 1. City living with a small-town friendly feel
- 2. Many great trails to walk/run/bike
- 3. Beautiful coastline and beaches I love being on the water!

ACHIEVEMENTS:

Certified Information Privacy Professional - U.S. (CIPP/US)

International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP)

2017 Data Governance Committee (Dartmouth-Hitchcock)

Member - Representing the Privacy Office

Certified Information Privacy Manager (CIPM)

International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP)