

“The Maine Law privacy community of students, faculty, and graduates provides a great network for new privacy professionals to learn from each other and support each other in the growing privacy space.”

HOMETOWN:

Pigeon Forge
Tennessee

UNDERGRAD/GRAD:

B.A., Vanderbilt University
M.A., Chicago Theological Seminary
M.L.I.S, Dominican University

WHY MAINE LAW:

- Small and welcoming community
- Supportive Faculty/Staff
- Wealth of learning opportunities

BEFORE MAINE LAW:

I attended graduate school in Chicago and then worked for more than eight years as a librarian at academic and public libraries in Illinois and Maine.

“The faculty and staff are incredibly supportive and want you to succeed. The school is a tight-knit community and small enough that you can truly connect with everyone.”

ACHIEVEMENTS:

- Certificate in Information Privacy Law with Distinction
- Maine Law Faculty Significant Achievement Award
- Certified Information Privacy Professional – U.S. Government (CIPP/G)
From the International Association of Privacy Professionals
- Facebook NextGen Privacy Leader
Scholarship attendee, Digital Advertising Alliance Summit 2019

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING:

Editor-in-Chief, Ocean and Coastal Law Journal

Law Clerk, Networking Advertising Initiative

Legal Extern, Office of the Maine Attorney General,
Public Access Division

Horace S. Libby Fellow, Maine Public Utilities Commission

WHY MAINE:

1. Amazing beaches, mountains, and lakes
2. Great coffee shops and restaurants
3. Lots of live music and cultural events

