

“Being a law student is a lot of work, but Maine Law’s community made it something we achieved together. Those relationships continue in practice. If I run into an issue today, I know I can rely on my classmates as attorneys.”

HOMETOWN:

New Sharon
Maine

UNDERGRAD:

B.A., University of Southern Maine
Political Science (Major), U.S. History (Minor)

WHY MAINE LAW:

- Location
- Strong ties to Maine’s legal community
- Access to internships and externships

“Maine Law has strong ties to the legal community which gives Maine Law students access to bar events, CLEs and alumni who serve as adjunct professors.”

BEFORE MAINE LAW:

I worked as an executive assistant to a documentary film producer/agent. I also worked for a caterer and was a breeder of English Bull Terriers.

ACHIEVEMENTS:

- American Bankruptcy Institute Medal for Excellence in Bankruptcy Studies
- National Association of Women Lawyers Recognition Award
- Next Generation Class of 2017, National Conference of Bankruptcy Judges
- 2018-2020, Super Lawyers Rising Star
- 2018 Semifinalist, International Women Insolvency and Restructuring Confederation Rising Star Award

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING:

- Externship, Bankruptcy Court
- Research Assistant for Professor Lois Lupica
- Founder, Maine Law Students for Reproductive Justice (If/When/How)
- Conrad B. Duberstein Moot Court Competition Team

WHY MAINE:

1. Walkable city
2. Excellent coffee shops and bakeries
3. Easy access to the islands of Casco Bay for adventures!

