Justice Abraham M. Rudman Scholarship Fund

Established in 1971, the Justice Abraham M. Rudman Scholarship Fund honors a great Maine citizen, lawyer, graduate of the University of Maine Law School, Maine Supreme Court Justice, and gentle, dedicated family man who made a lasting impression on the lives of all whom he encountered. As one of the largest and most important scholarship funds at the University of Maine School of Law, the Rudman Scholarship Fund honors the Justice’s keen legal mind, his dedication to honesty, integrity and helping others, and his devotion to the State of Maine.

Over the years, the Fund has grown to its present market value of $418,228, and has provided many, many scholarships to students from the State of Maine who demonstrated academic promise as well as financial need.

In 2013, the Rudmans mourned the loss of two of their beloved family members: Gerald E. Rudman, Abraham’s son, on July 18, 2013, and Inez Rudman on August 1, 2013, wife of the Hon. Paul Rudman, one of Abraham’s three sons. Like his father, Gerald was a lawyer, and joined his father’s practice, forming what today is the 30 plus person Bangor firm of Rudman Winchell. Inez (Kolonel) Rudman was Paul’s wife of 44 years. Abraham and Paul are the only father and son to have served on the Maine Supreme Judicial Court. The following individuals and entities honored the lives of Gerald and/or Inez Rudman in 2013-14 with a gift to the Justice Abraham M. Rudman Scholarship Fund.
