We invite you to become a member

For over 30 years, we have partnered with the legal community and provided access to our collections and services. Participation in the Donald L. Garbrecht Law Library Association assists the library in maintaining the scope and quality of its collections, while providing members with a range of services and benefits, including reduced cost interlibrary loan and access to electronic databases. Membership categories and fees are set out below. Entire firm membership is encouraged. A Friend of the Library category is available if this does not meet your needs. Sole practitioners and alums will receive benefits as full members at the rates below.

Thank you for your support.

Professional and Public Resource:

The Donald L. Garbrecht Law Library is an integral part of the Maine Law’s academic program and a resource of inestimable value to both the legal profession and to the general public in the state of Maine. Due to the scope and depth of our collection, our library’s quality ranks in the top half nationally among academic law libraries.

Key databases available with the library:

- HeinOnline - Law reviews, CFR, U.S. Code, Congressional Record, and much more.
- Fastcase
- Current Index To Legal Periodicals
- Index To Legal Periodicals & Books
- LexisNexis Public Access:
 - *Maine Materials
 - *Shepard’s Citator Service

*Repository of Papers - Judge Edward Gignoux & Judge Frank Coffin

*A partial depository for United States Government documents of interest to the legal profession and a European Union Depository.

*An extensive collection of treatises, monographs, and periodical titles, and a complete collection of British and Canadian materials.

Benefits of Membership

Library services are available to all library users; however, a member of the Association will receive priority access to the services and benefits described below for a minimal charge. Friends of the Library will enjoy the same services as Members although the Friends’ discount on fee-based services will not be as great.

- Scanned PDF’s of non-circulating materials
- Interlibrary loan services for items not available in the Law Library’s collection
- Instruction on research techniques
- Access to all licensed databases via email or phone
- Reference librarian guided subject searches
- Direct mail loan of circulating treatises
- Access to URSUS, the statewide automated library system
