

MAINE

UNIVERSITY OF MAINE SCHOOL OF LAW

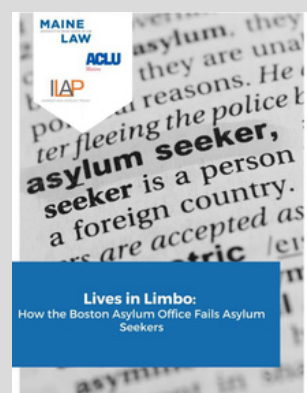

LAW

Located in the coastal city of Portland, Maine, the University of Maine School of Law is a small school with a global reach. As Maine's public and only law school, Maine Law serves as a force for the common good, while preparing graduates for careers as leaders in a wide variety of professional settings.

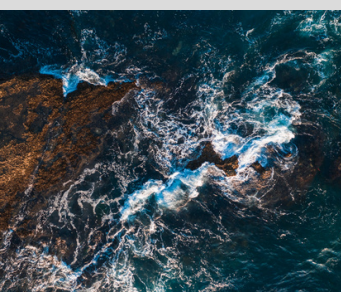

NEW HOME OF MAINE LAW

Later this year, we will move into a new home that will help us better facilitate our commitment to those principles. Located in the heart of downtown Portland, our new location at 300 Fore Street and the building's updated technological capabilities will give our students better access to local, statewide, and national communities and ensure Maine Law is even more accessible to them.

MAINE LAW'S REFUGEE AND HUMAN RIGHTS CLINIC IN THE HEADLINES

Following the report issued by a coalition, which included Maine Law's Refugee and Human Rights Clinic, the ACLU of Maine, and Maine's Immigrant Legal Advocacy Project, entitled Lives in Limbo: How the Boston Asylum Office Fails Asylum Seekers, members of Congress called for an investigation into the Boston Asylum Office and called on the Department of Homeland Security Inspector General to investigate alleged bias and the resulting low asylum grant rates in the office.

CERTIFICATE IN ENVIRONMENTAL AND OCEANS LAW

The Certificate in Environmental and Oceans Law is designed to prepare law students for careers in important fields like environmental law and policy, energy law, global warming and renewable energy, oceans and coastal law, and many other related areas. Maine Law is one of only a few law schools in the country offering a certificate in this area of law. Additionally, Maine Law offers the only Arctic Law program in the country.

CERTIFICATE IN INFORMATION PRIVACY LAW

Maine Law is one of a few law schools in the country offering a dedicated Certificate in Information Privacy Law. Students develop valuable legal skills and benefit from a unique partnership with the IAPP.
